JOE BLAS'S successive accomplishments in both curricular and extra curricular activities make him one of Grant's most successful figures.

The quality of leadership is one of LLOYD BOUSLIMAN'S many characteristics suiting him to lead his class as president for three semesters.

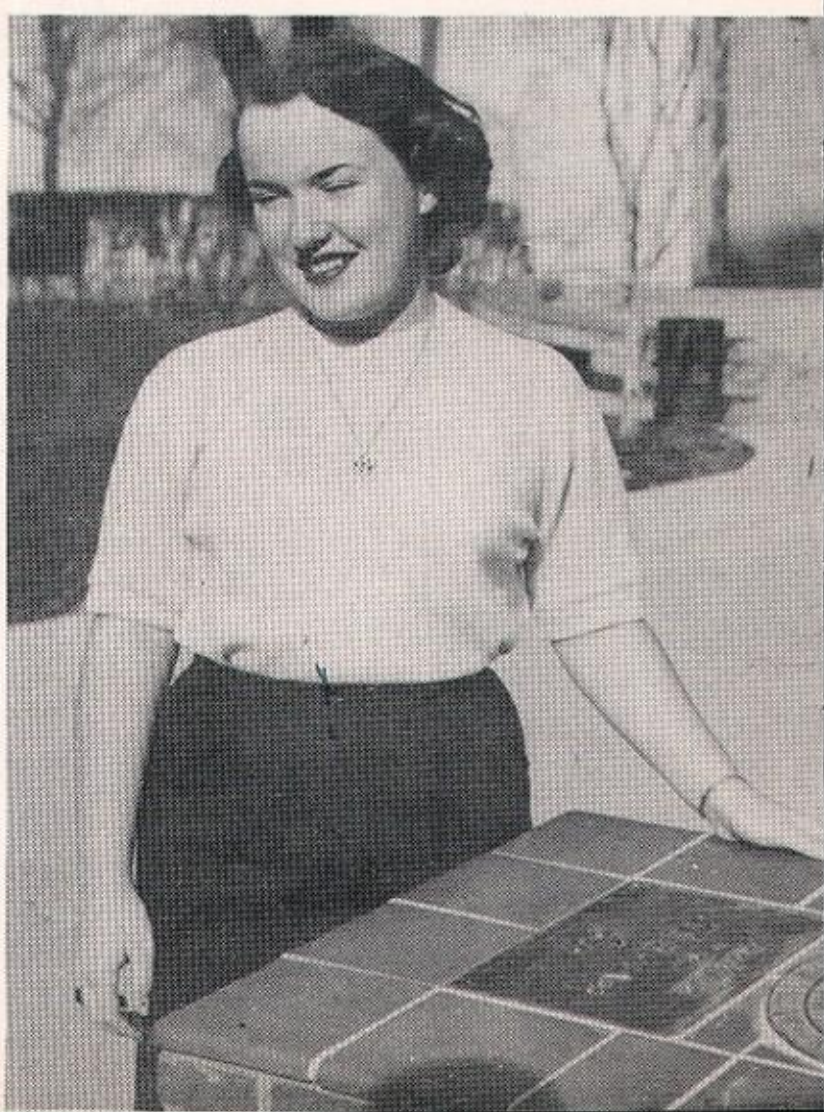

SENIOR CLASS OFFICERS

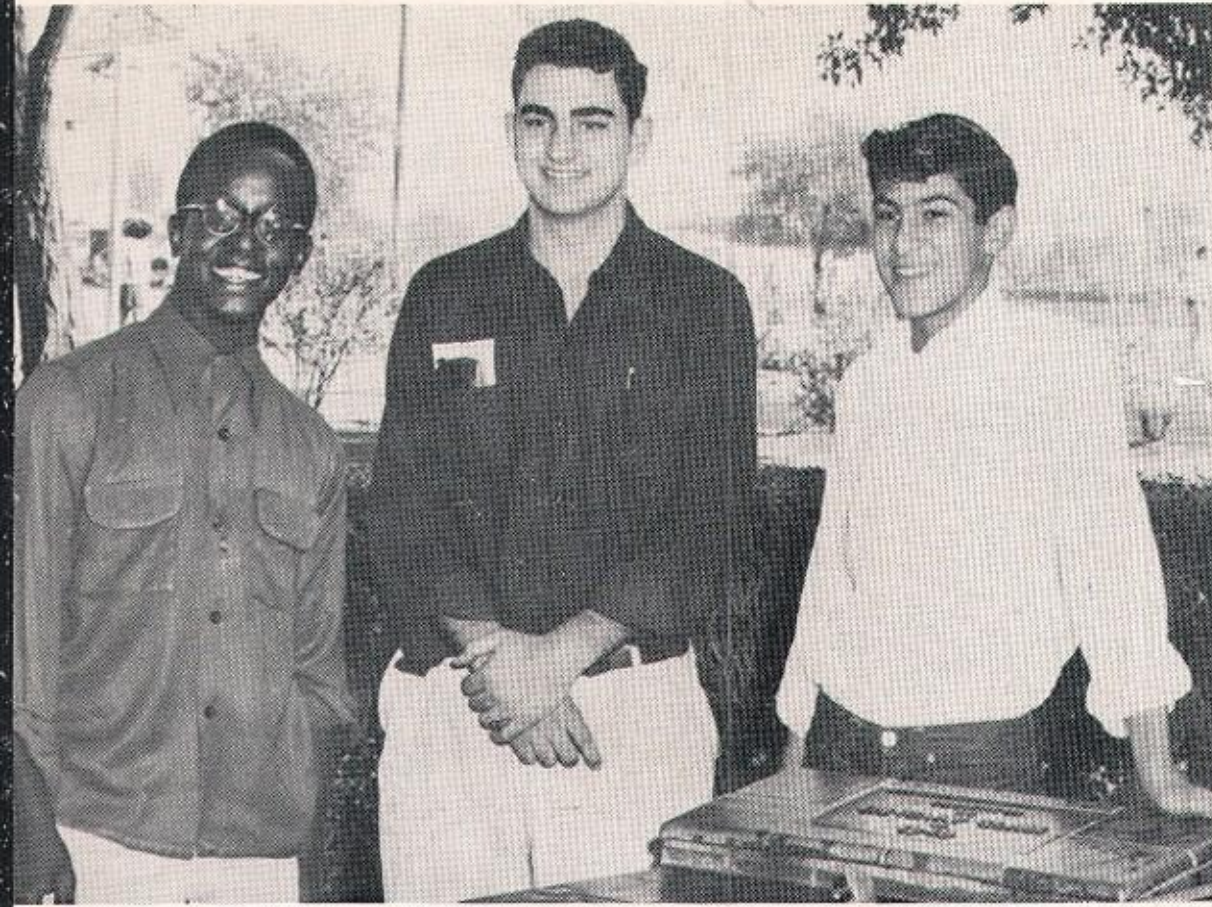

Pixie charm and an air of gaiety have made VERN A COLE an outstanding member of her class.

JO ANN WHITE'S quiet charm and willingness to lend a helping hand have won her many friends while at Grant.

ACADEMICS

English

To graduate, Grant requires that three years of English must be taken. A fourth year is available to seniors, but is not required. Among courses which are included in English are grammar, American literature, and English literature.

Mathematics

There is quite a variety of courses in the math department at Grant. Some are: general math, commercial math, algebra, geometry, and trigonometry. Two years are required to graduate.

History

Another requirement for graduation is history. A course that helps seniors prepare for the problems that will face them later as citizens of the United States is Problems of Democracy.

Language

Two years of language are required for all college prep students. The ones taught at Grant are: Latin, Spanish, and German.

God

Science

General science, biology, chemistry, and physics are some of the classes in science offered to the students of Grant. They are designed to help us obtain a better understanding of things around us.

Home Economics

Child care, family relations, as well as cooking and sewing fall under the title of "home ec." These classes are open to sophomores, juniors, and seniors. All of these classes are designed to further the knowledge of future homemakers.

Nancy

Art

Among the students at Grant art is a very popular class. After taking beginning art, students may take advanced art, silk screening, costume designing, and advanced commercial art.

Driving

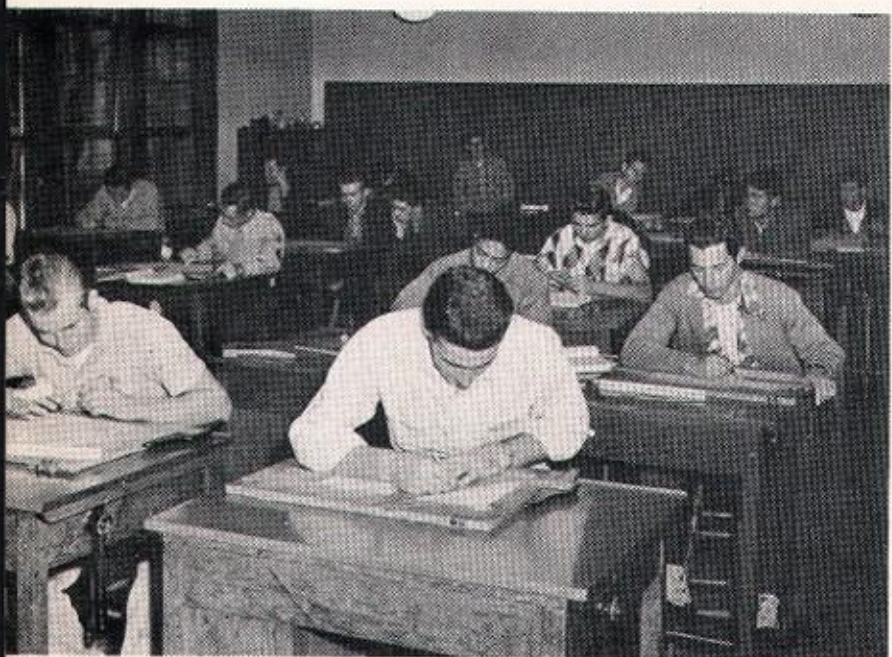

Safe Driving

This course is open only to students that have reached legal driving age. If you take this course and successfully complete it, an actual license may be obtained. This is not only an interesting course, but is quite essential. Students who take safe driving learn the responsibilities of having and operating a vehicle.

Business Machines

Some of the commercial subjects offered at Grant are: typing, business machines, junior business, shorthand, bookkeeping, filing, senior business, business fundamentals, and transcription. Typing is the most essential class for both boys and girls.

Mechanical Drawing

Under the direction of Mr. Schlegel, mechanical drawing classes are open for both the beginner and the advanced. All boys and girls alike should be interested in this course, for it is essential in the field of engineering.

Library

Mrs. Cole, our librarian, is always on hand in the well-equipped library at Grant. The boys and girls who work in the library are well informed and can tell you right away where any book or any kind of information can be found in the library. This is a very worthwhile course to take.

Leathercraft

Bookmarkers, keycases, and purses are just a few of the many things that students make in the leathercraft classes. They learn to carve initials and designs into leather and how to lace leather.

Automotive Mechanics

"It won't start. I wonder what's wrong this time." If you took auto mechanics, you would probably know right away what was wong. One good thing about this class is that you get to work on your own car right in class. Every boy interested in cars would be wise to take this course.

Pre-Aircraft

In this class you learn the fundamentals of the structures of airplanes. One also studies the repair and maintenance of aircraft.

Agriculture

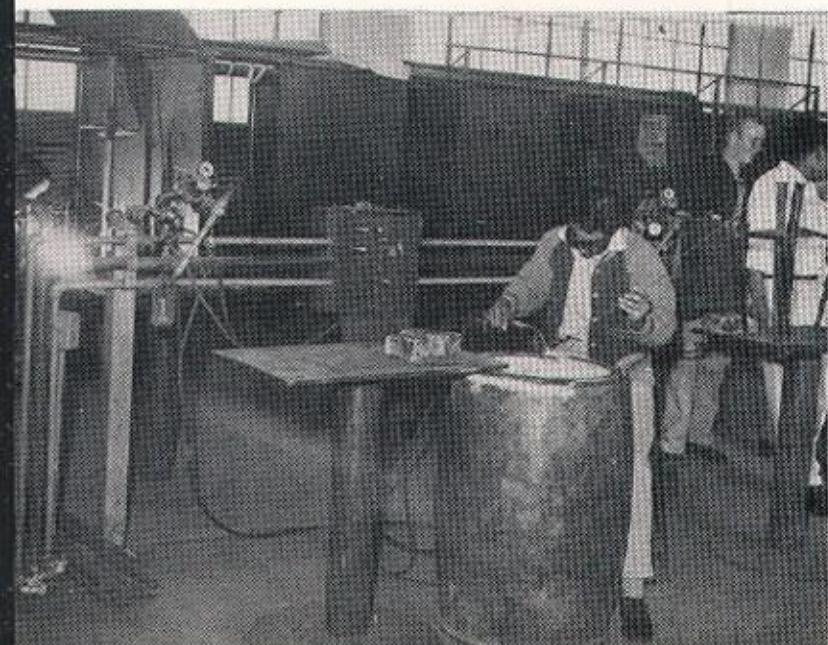

If one wants to become a farmer, he must know about the soil, crops, irrigation, and about livestock. The class to take, then, is agriculture.

Woodshop

Nightstands, cedar chests, and tea tables are just a few of the many pieces of furniture that are made in the interesting woodshop classes.

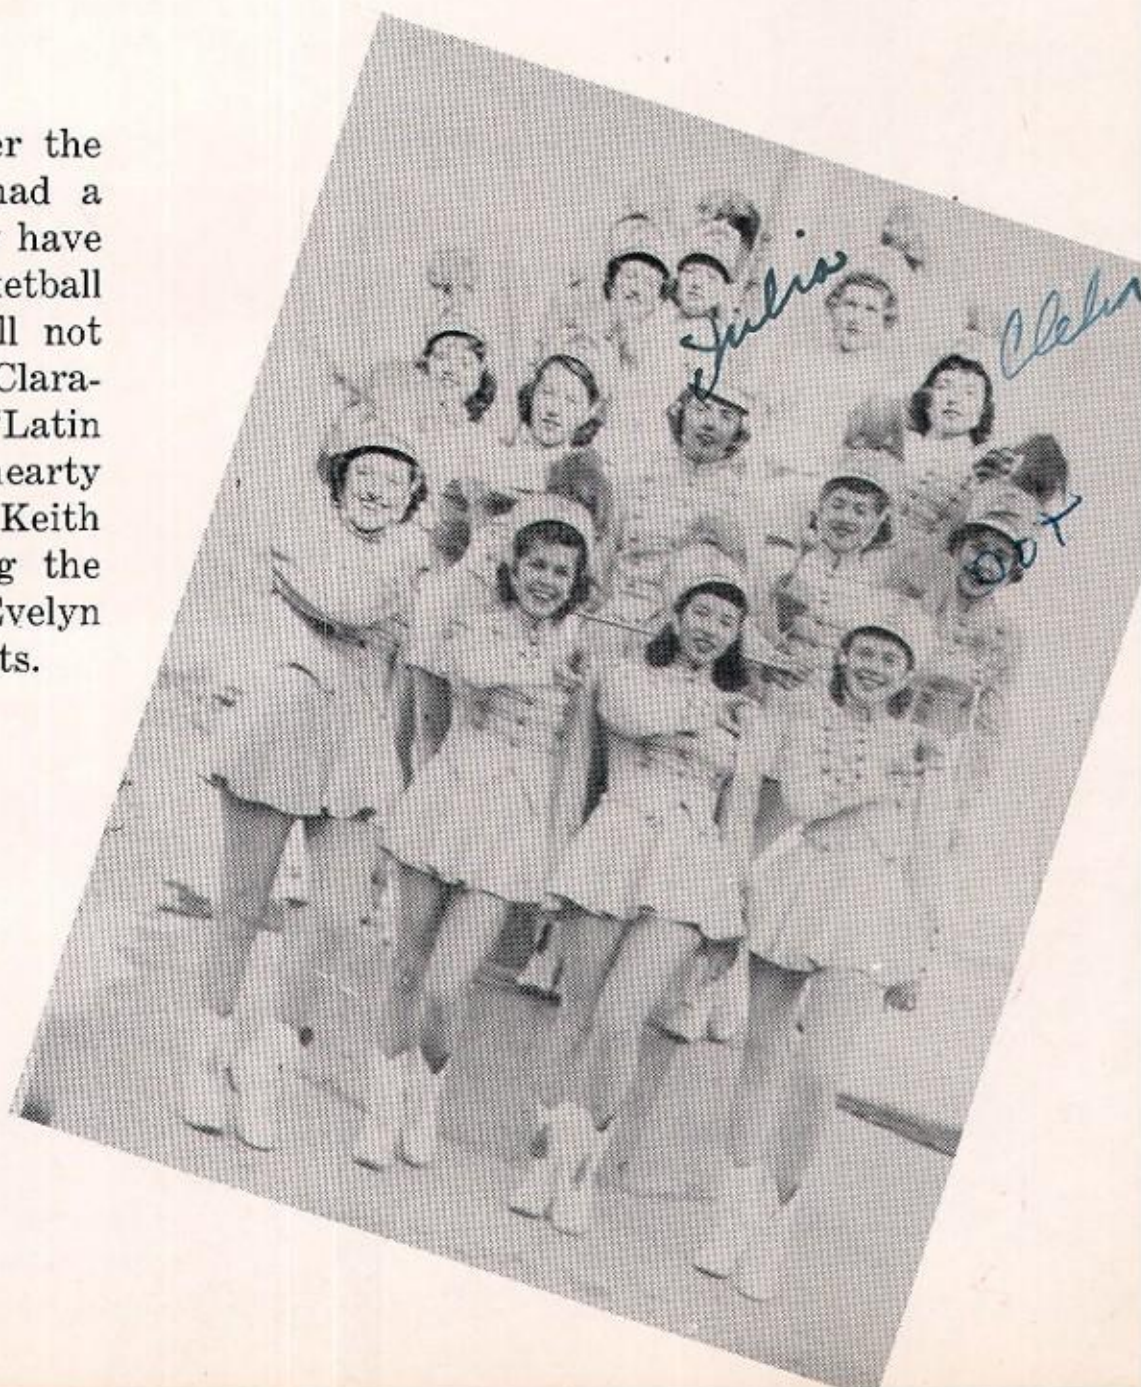

Welding

Welding is a must for all boys who wish to become mechanics. One learns in this course the operation of the acetylene and oxy-hydrogen torch and many other essential things. It is a very interesting class.

MAJORETTES

The Grant Union Majorettes, under the direction of Herbert Oehler, have had a very successful season this year. They have marched at many football and basketball games and in parades. One they will not forget for a long time is the Santa Clara-Utah football game, where they put on 'Latin American Saga.' Grant extends its hearty appreciation to head majorette Janet Keith on the wonderful job she did leading the majorettes. Also a big hand goes to Evelyn Averill and Phyllis Carder, the acrobats.

The 1952 football season had many bright spots despite the won and lost record of 3-7. The Pacers held wins over San Juan, Christian Brothers, and the strong Turlock Bulldogs.

The season opened with a win against San Juan. The following week, Grant played host to the Christian Brothers Gaels, and the Gaels returned home at the short end of a 24-13 score. The Pacers received their first taste of defeat at the hands of the Woodland Wolves in a non-conference game.

Grant next invaded the den of the strong Turlock Bulldogs and tucked in an impressive conference victory. The Pacers received their first conference loss when they played host to the Sacramento Dragons on Homecoming Day.

The next game was a real thriller. The Panthers from Modesto, trailing throughout most of the game, pushed across a final touchdown with one minute remaining to defeat the Pacers 37-33.

Following the heart-breaking defeat from Modesto, Grant lost four straight to McClatchy, Lodi, Stockton, and the trophy game with Woodland.

Grant's Chuck Kuhl, Jose de la Rosa, and David Fase all placed on the Sacramento Bee's and Sacramento Union's All-City squads. Receiving honorable mention were Gary Adams, Andy Campos, David Prohoroff, and Fred Scott. Kuhl also was top scorer of the city with 66 points.

Leading the Colts in scoring were: Larry Holt, 18; Larry Kuhl, 12; and James Forsch, 6. The biggest gain of the season was Kuhl's 98 yard run for a teedee against Lodi.

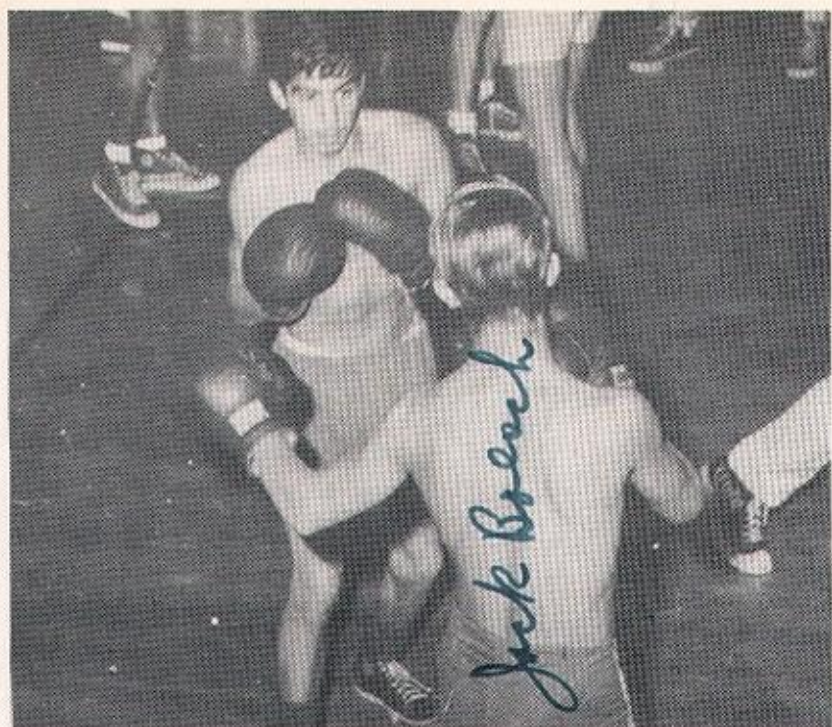

Offensively the Colts racked up 62 first downs to their opponents' 80.

The "B" team ended their season with a 1-6 record as the Colts grew stronger as the season progressed. They proved this when they upset Sacramento High 13-6. They also proved that they were a second half team, since their opponents scored a great majority of their points during the first half.

MODERN DANCE

ACTIVITIES

Footlighters

"All the world is a stage . . ." and the FOOTLIGHTERS certainly proved it this year!

Among their many activities this year they put on the short play "Cup Of Tea." The one act play was put on by different casts for a double assembly. The casts consisted of Virginia Criss, Ed Cooper, Beverly Vereide, Phil Sanders, Phyllis Carder, Gary Posz, Steve Webster, and Edna Wagner.

The startling success of the play was due to the efforts of two student directors, Donna Kitzero and Marlene Schucker.

Early in December the organization held its fall installation at Donna Kitzero's home. Skits, dancing, pantomimes, and a general good time was had by all.

The following were installed as the spring officers: Chuck MacCrone, president; Steve Webster, vice president; Phyllis Carder, secretary; Virginia Criss, treasurer; and Gary Posz, sergeant-at-arms.

Officers for the fall semester were seated, Peggy Long, president; Dick Clare, sergeant-at-arms; Marlene Schucker, secretary; Ida Mae Hunt, treasurer; and Phil Sanders, vice president.

The officers for the spring semester are: Chuck Kuhl, president; Sonny Rolfe, vice president; Dick Clare, secretary; Gary Adams, treasurer; and Dave Fase, sergeant-at-arms.

One of the up and coming organizations on the Grant campus is the boys' athletic association, namely the Block G Society.

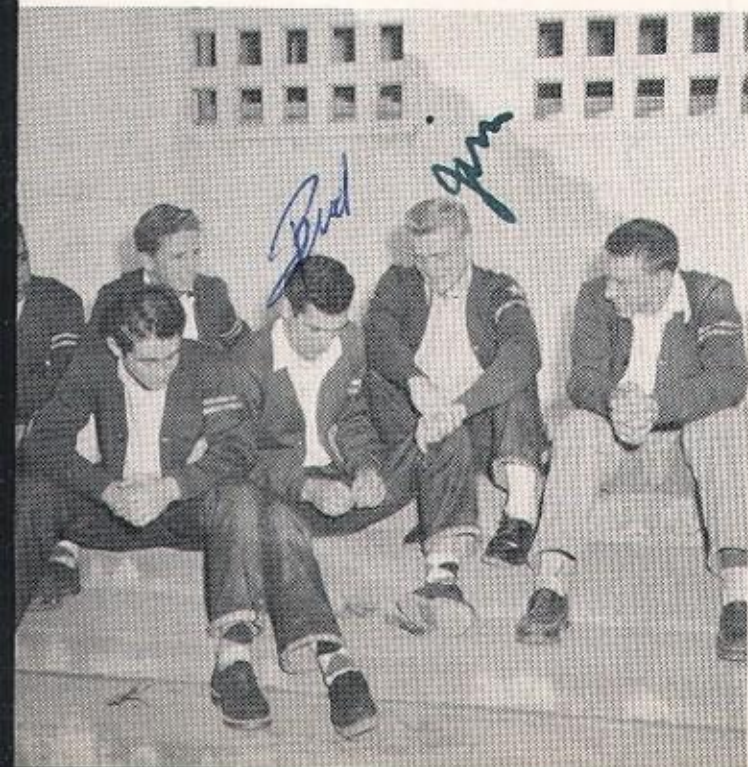

During the fall semester the club put on its third annual Bean Feed, in the Grant Tech social hall. Herm Meister, head line coach at U.C., was the guest of honor.

Chuck Kuhl, Bob Greer, and Fred Scott, members of the Block G, were selected by the Sacramento sports writers association as Preps of the Week during football season.

A dance was put on by the Block G in the early spring to bolster its treasury, and it was deemed a great success by all who attended.

The officers for the fall semester were: Chuck Kuhl, president; Dick Clare, vice president; Carl Rolfe, secretary; Gary Adams, treasurer; and Lowell Lardie, sergeant-at-arms.

JA

Statesmen

Club officers for the fall term were Chuck Mac Crone, president; George Leuenberger, vice president; Nancy Lee Helfer, secretary; Shirley Smith, treasurer; and Karl Baumheckel, sergeant-at-arms.

The Junior Statesmen of Grant High have one aim and that is to give each student some knowledge of his government and how it operates. They meet several times a month with one meeting set aside for the study of parliamentary procedure.

In the fall the Statesmen held a kick-off party at Bob Skemp's home, and then with the ball in play they really went to town.

In October they put on an assembly showing the history of Korea. In November there was the state convention at Bakersfield.

In December, Clothes for Koreans drive was sponsored by the club. In January they were off to the regional convention at Oakland.

Truly one of the most active organizations at Grant, they deserve a round of applause.

World Friendship

The World Friendship Club, formerly UNESCO, divided itself into three organizations last semester in order to provide better activities for its members.

The Stamp Club meets first and third Wednesday of each month in Mr. Ball's room. The club buys, sells and trades stamps from various parts of the U. S.

The Pen Pal Club has correspondence all over the world. Theirs is a very interesting club, as they can learn first hand the conditions of the other countries of the world.

The main body of The World Friendship Club meets the first and third Monday nights in the little theater. At their meetings they get acquainted with the customs of other countries.

October 17th, a day to remember . . . Grant High's first annual Homecoming celebration. The day of festivities started in the morning with a grand RALLY in the auditorium, followed by a gigantic PARADE through North Sacramento. Then on to the GAME. During the halftime activities Jewell Walker was crowned by Dr. Daniel Terry as Homecoming QUEEN. The Queen reigned over the after game DANCE which played host to the Grant varsity.

The alumni were invited back to their alma mater to renew friendships of old. They held their reunion in the school cafeteria.

The whole day was devoted to the uplifting of school spirit.

The City of Sacramento and the City of North Sacramento both proclaimed the day as official Homecoming Day in their respective cities.

Proclaimed by the North Sacramento city council as OFFICIAL GRANT HOMECOMING DAY.

DECEMBER in PARIS

On the night of December 11 the class of January, 1954, presented their Junior Prom, "December In Paris."

A well planned, well organized dance, "December In Paris" provided enjoyment and entertainment for all those in attendance.

With the remains of ancient Rome as the decorations and with a flair of European arrogance the nightlifers danced to the smooth music of Bob Mat- orollo's orchestra.

STAGE CROW

What makes an assembly click? What makes it go off smoothly? Just ask Cliff Olsen or Chuck Mac Crone. Cliff is in charge of the lights and Chuck is in charge of the sets. They were the stage managers this year, and together with Mr. Thorne and president Chuck Kuhl worked out the many involved and complicated details of each assembly.

Conferring on last minute details.

Pleasing them is part of their job.

The officers for the Latin club for the fall semester were Joy Lewis, president; Carla Cobb, vice president; Johanna Tuma, secretary and LeAnn Copeland, treasurer.

James Keema headed the club during the spring with James Brownell as vice president and Eugenia Krouse and James Mason acting as secretary and treasurer respectively.

SEVEN KEYS TO BALDPATE

"How did you get in here without a key?"

Melodramatic portrait.

The January class of '53 presented as their senior play, Seven Keys to Baldpate, a melodrama in two acts by George M. Cohan.

The crux of the affair is the trials and tribulations of a novelist named Magee. It seemed Magee made a wager with the owner of Baldpate that he could write a 10,000 word novel in twenty-four hours.

To do this Magee had to have seclusion and what is more secluded than a summer resort in the dead of winter? Magee was introduced to the old place by the caretaker and his wife. They revealed to him the story of some graft money put in the office safe by some crooked politicians.

From these facts he wove an interesting novel and ironically called it SEVEN KEYS TO BALDPATE.

"Take it easy, young fellow, you haven't got a chance."

"Give me a hand, Cargan, and we'll get her out of here."

"Hurry! — here's your flashlight!"

Final instructions.

SCHIEHERAZADE

"Grand March"

Sultana Cole and Sultan Bousliman

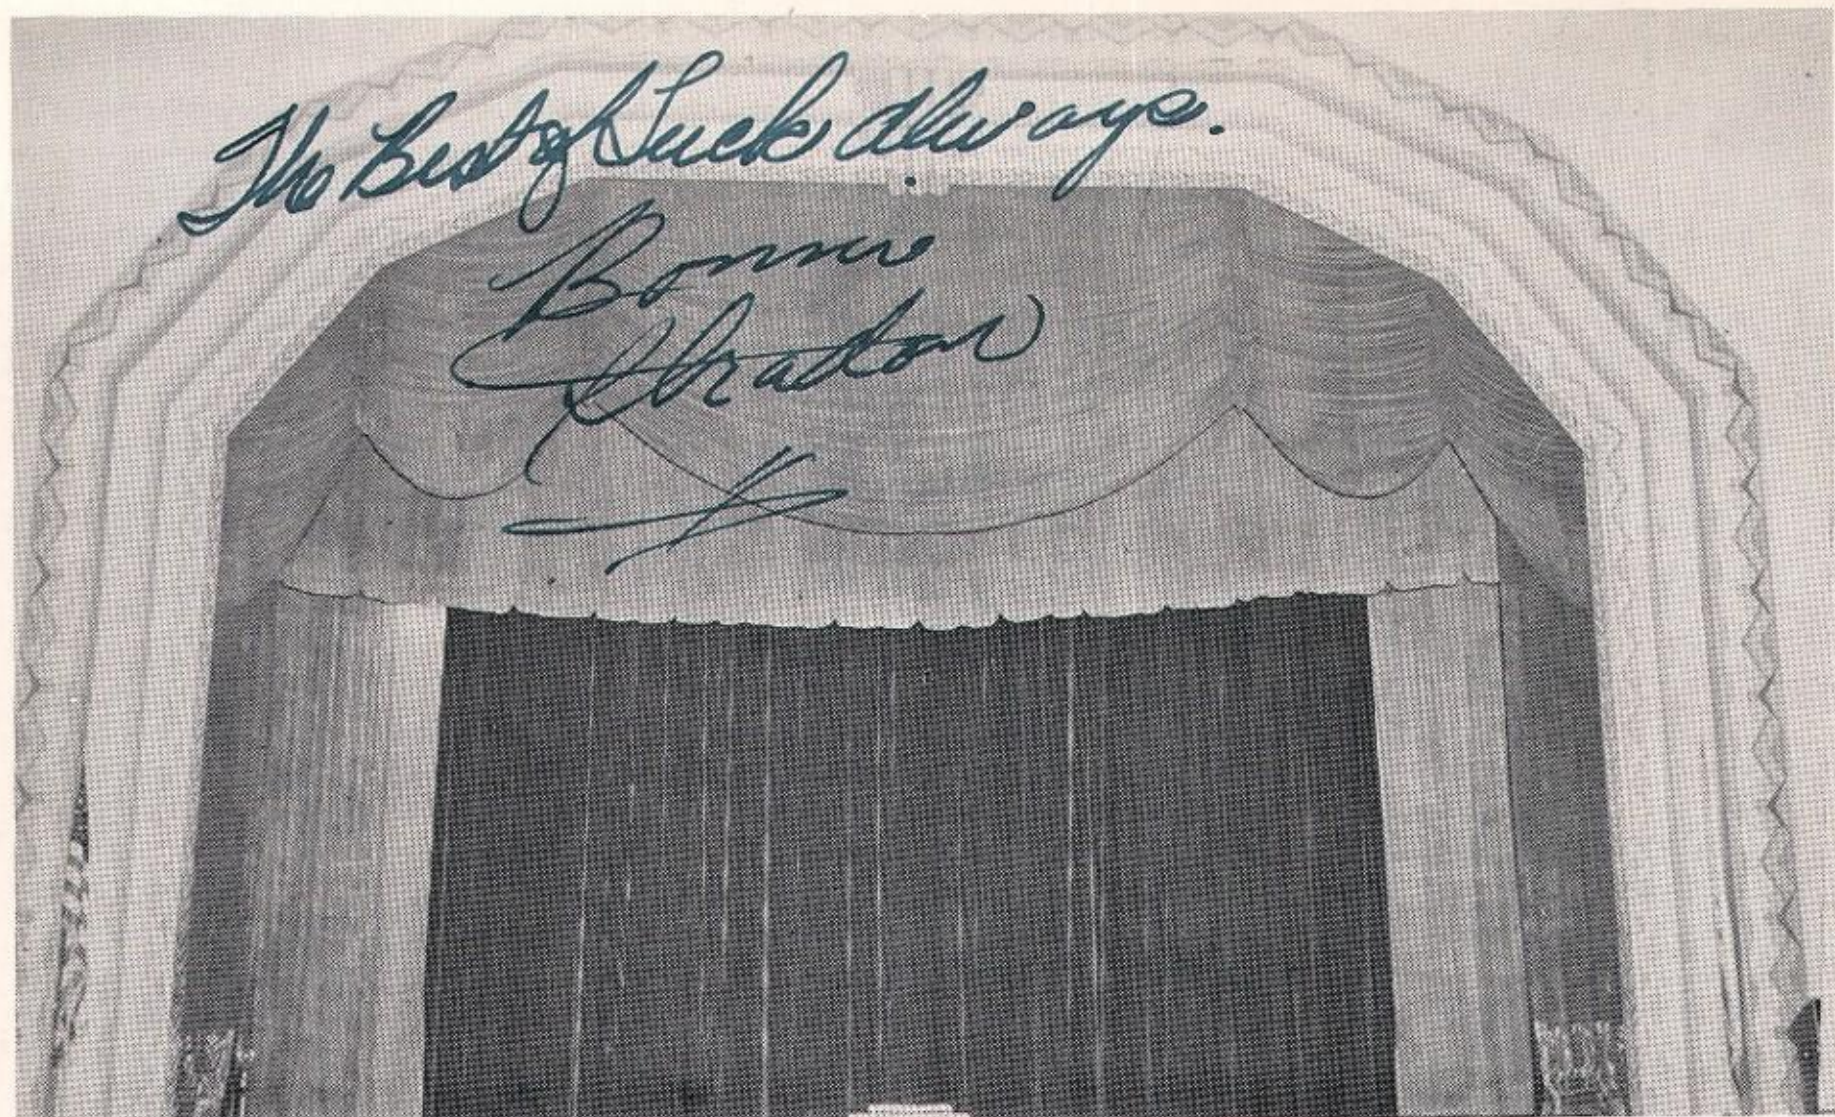

"Scheherazade" was chosen as the name of the January senior ball presented by the June class of '53. The theme of Arabian nights was centered around the splendor of the Taj Mahal. Eddie Halter provided the scintillating music for easy dancing.

The entertainment was most unusual in the fact that it was the story of Scheherazade as narrated by Edna Wagner. Scheherazade was portrayed by Donna Marks while George Leuenberger played the part of King Schahriar.

Decorations for the ball were done under the capable leadership of Rocco Papalia.

They did the work.

CURTAIN GOING UP

"CURTAIN GOING UP", by Gregory Johnston, is the story, in comic terms, of a play in high school, and the action takes place on the stage and in the auditorium.

Among the myraid comic obstacles with which poor young Miss Burgess is faced (it is her first play) are the following: a grouchy janitor with a sharp tongue, the disappearance of the playbooks the first day of rehearsal, a set of comically crossed-up high school romances, a charming young heroine who becomes stagestruck, her bewildered boyfriend, a campus "actor" with a swollen head, the disgruntled athlete feeling out of place as an actor, a flamboyant professional actress with advice, a banker's daughter driven to theft and dirty tricks by her father's ambitions—and, perhaps most unexpected of all, a romance for young Miss Burgess herself!

Almost everything that can happen does happen. And the solution to the mounting complications sets forth a most worthwhile evening of enjoyment.

"Enchanted Sea" was chosen by the High Junior class of 1954 as the name of the annual Junior Prom. Decorations blended in to the theme very well and were a credit to the class. The dance was held in the girl's gym on the first of May.

Other committee heads were Jim Doris, Sondra Chester, Melvin Vail, Janet Staines, Jack Schott, Donna Mire-ski, Tina Foster, and Gary Rosenberg.

MELODIOUS RHYTHM SODY

Whipple, Leaf, Moffitt, Smith and Cole.

The Senior Ball presented by the class of January, 1954, promises to be one of the best, ever exclaim the two co-chairmen Pat Smith and Buddy Cole. Surely a chairman couldn't ask for a better group to work with. Assisting the chairmen are Stanley Whipple, in charge of refreshments; Barbara Leaf, in charge of entertainment; and Carol Moffitt, in charge of the orchestra.

Don Murchison and Jackie Clutterbuck are in charge of publicity for the dance, while Ronnie Dodrill is in charge of the theme. Sally Coburn is taking care of the decorations and is being ably assisted by Ronnie Popp. Ronald Prince is in charge of the bid committee.

TRAIL BLAZER

Ladies and Gentlemen, I am going to take you behind the scenes, to show you just what goes on in the making of the Trail Blazer. The time is fourth period on any Wednesday, the scene is Mr. Gilliam's room.

Lights . . . Camera . . . ACTION!

"Hey! This paper is supposed to come out on Friday. Where is that copy?"

"Arch, where is the sports cartoon? What! The photographers haven't taken it yet? Well get them on the ball!"

"Copy boy . . . Copy Boy . . . COPY BOY! Oh, there you are, here take this down to the print shop . . . and hurry! Mr. Waters was supposed to have had that an hour ago."

"Diane, get Skemp on the phone and ask him where in the name of Grant Union High School did he put the Military Parade for this week?"

Curtain

Ah hah! you say, if that's all they do it must be a snap course. Perish the thought, my friend. Pull up a chair and let me tell you of the many intricate details that must first be completed in order for the paper to come out on time.

As you will notice there are four pages in each Trail Blazer. Each page has an editor.

The editor-in-chief, Diane Donsing, takes care of the front page; the feature editor, Sharon Foote, is in charge of the second page. She usually sees that the Question of the Week, Thumbnail Sketches and local gossip are all in on time. As for the third page, well that's up to Karen Bengtson, girls sports editor. Karen has charge of selecting the Pacer, Pacerette and Teacher of the week, not to mention Gym Shorts, Reg News and other stories of centests, et al.

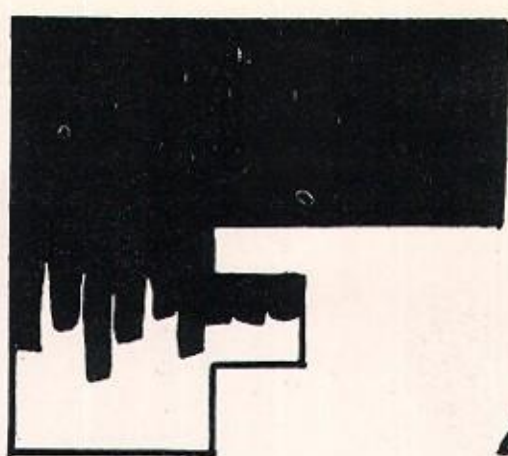

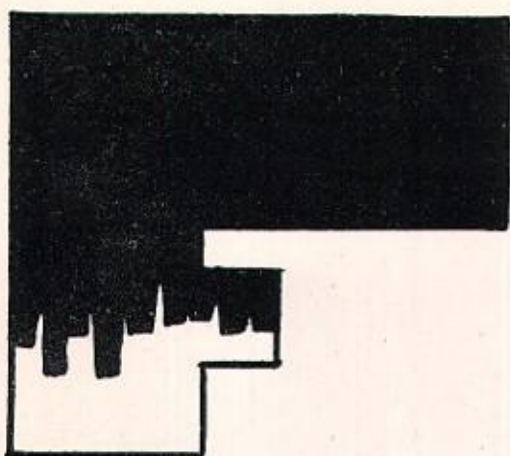

The fourth page is devoted entirely to news of Grant's athletic teams. Norman Kempster, boys sports editor, is in charge of assigning stories and arranging this page.

Now these editors are ably assisted in their work by reporters Gary Adams, Rita Bolton, Dick Clare, Sally Coburn, Alberta Krohnert, Carl Rolfe, Chuck MacCrone and Pat Smith, plus the beginning journalism class.

After the editors complete their pages they submit them to Mr. Gilliam for correction. They (the proofs) are then sent to the print shop where, under the supervision of Mr. Waters, Wayne Anderson, Jack Morrisseau, Ronald McMillan and Jack Westbrook put the words in type and print the paper.

By this time it is Friday and time for the paper to be distributed to the class rooms. This is where Barbara Leaf, the circulation manager, takes over.

"Hey . . . who threw that snow ball?"

"Track . . . loose ski!"

These cries and many more were familiar to the members of the TENAYA SKI CLUB. The club met every other week in Mr. Marks' room. Mr. Nedom is the faculty sponsor.

Members of TENAYA enjoyed many trips to the snow line this year, together with other organizations at Grant. Soda Springs was the rendezvous for most of the Grant ski enthusiasts, as they provide for skiers four rope tows, a "J" bar and a double chair lift, plus three ski huts and two hotels for overnights.

The officers for the '52-'53 ski season for TENAYA are Rickey Farrell, president; Chuck MacCrone, vice president; Janis Rider, secretary; and Larry Matthews, treasurer.

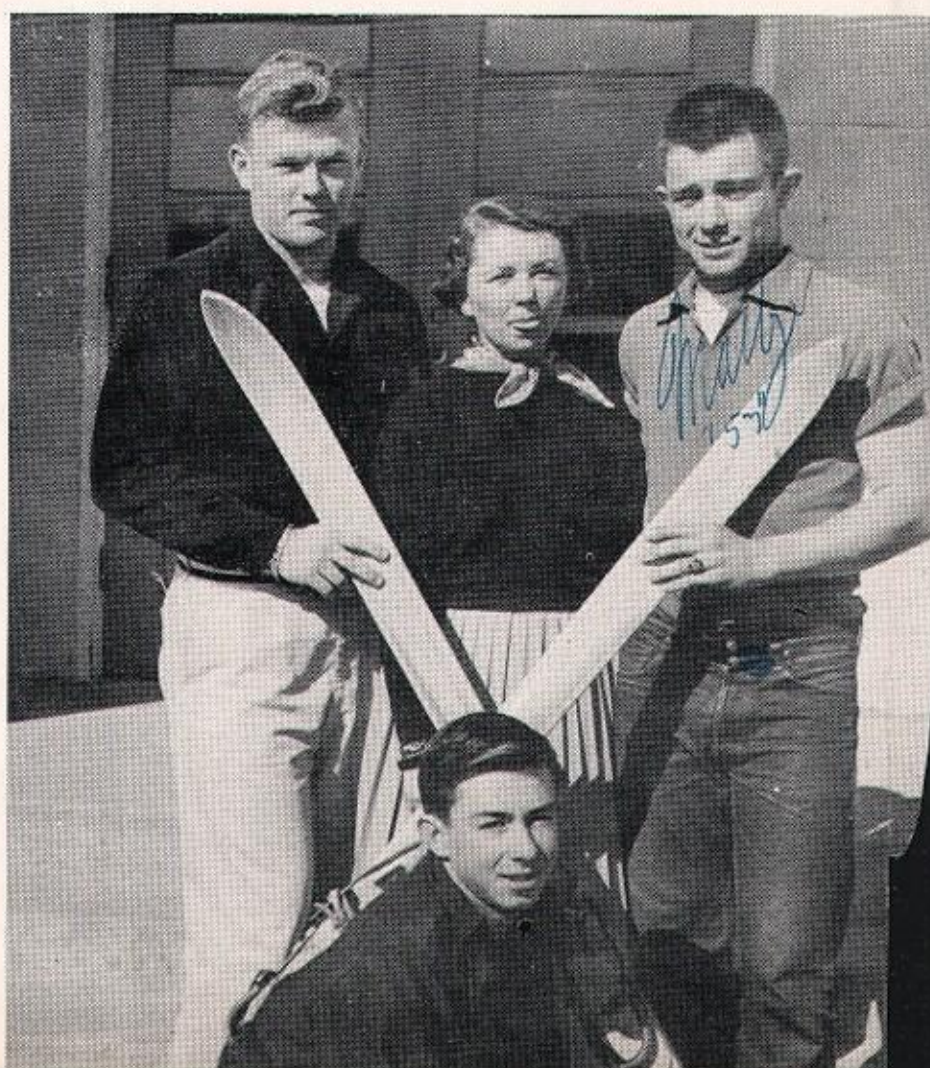

Want to go places? Join the FFA. During the last year the FFA went to the Junior Grand National Livestock Show at the Cow Palace in San Francisco, to Davis to judge livestock during the annual Davis picnic, and to the State Fair also to judge cattle.

The Grant team won first and third place in judging at the State Fair in the brown swiss cattle division.

Heading the Future Farmers this year are Richard Schlenker, president; Gene Steinagel, vice president; Derry Shell, secretary; Don Martin, treasurer; Don Strauch, reporter; and Erwin Hayer, sentinel. Mr. Keller is the advisor for the group.

TENAYA

CIRCLE G

Swing your partner to and fro—promenade and go back home. Such was the call of the CIRCLE G folk dancing club. Heading the organization this year is Ted Georguson, president, not shown; Mr. Schlegel, advisor; Rosemarie Silkey, treasurer; Dolores Otten, secretary; and Miss Annabelle Vargas, advisor.

ROCKING G

Joan Nelson led the ROCKING G through a very successful year as president of the club. Assisting her were Dick Guertin, rodeo chairman; Sam Hunt, treasurer; Mr. Kennedy, advisor; JoJean Lambert, secretary; and Susan Landreth, horse show chairman.

MUSIC SOCIETY

The spring officers are Janet Keith, president; Jean Inglis, vice president; Nancy Eakins, secretary; Mary Great-house, treasurer; and Jack Morrisseau, sergeant-at-arms.

The Junior Red Cross sponsored a 'baskets for the needy' drive last Christmas and provided many a happy Christmas dinner for the less fortunate. The Red Cross asked and obtained the help of other organizations and reg classes.

James Mott led the Junior Red Cross during the spring semester as their president. Jean Inglis was elected vice president; Linda Roth, secretary; Peggy Poppett, treasurer; and Fritz Klopsch as representative-at-large.

The officers for the fall term were Fritz Klopsch, president; James Mott, vice president; Linda Roth, secretary; Maridel Hurst, treasurer; Melvin Gordon, representative-at-large. Mrs. Vaughn is advisor.

Bible Club

The officers of the club for the fall semester were: Gladys Burns, president; Marlene Webb, vice president; Betty Braninburg, secretary; and Ronald Smith, treasurer.

The spring officers are Ronald Smith, president; Anita Oliver, vice president; Betty Braninburg, secretary; and Marian Wardell, treasurer.

Quill and Scroll

A small compact organization that thrives on efficiency—this is the way one would describe the Quill and Scroll. Only members of the advanced journalism and Del Pasado classes are eligible for membership.

The officers for this year are: Norman Kempster, president; Chuck MacCrone, vice president; Dick Bolinder, secretary; Diane Donsing, treasurer; Jim Currie sergeant-at-arms; Karen Bengtson, historian; and Barbara Leaf, circulation manager.
